

BEAP Community Partnership is committed to delivering its services to diverse communities. We will strive to challenge all

Contact details If you , or a man that you know is suffering from domestic abuse, you can contact us on our confidential helpline on: Tel: 01274 731020

Our office base has a confidential address to promote safety for our staff and service users

Checklist

- ☐ Do you ever feel controlled by your partner or family?
- ☐ Are you unable to see certain friends or family members?
- ☐ Does your partner/ family member constantly text you or check up on you?
- ☐ Are you ever frightened about how your partner / family member will react to you?
- ☐ Does your partner / family member make unreasonable demands on you?
- ☐ Does your partner / family member put you down or belittle you?
- ☐ Do you feel pressured or smothered in your relationship?
- ☐ Does your partner/ family member pester you for money, control your money, withhold your money or credit cards?
- ☐ Are you criticised because of the things you say or do?
- ☐ Do you get the blame if your partner/ family member gets angry?
- ☐ Are you ever punched, slapped, kicked or physically abused in any other way by a partner or family member?
- ☐ Do you feel that you don't have a say in your relationships with other people?

If you tick yes to any of the above then get in touch. MRO are here to help.

Housing & Support to All Men who are Victims of Domestic Abuse

Helpline: 01274 731020

Or email:

menreachingout1@gmail.com

The government's definition Of domestic abuse is:

Any incident of threatening behaviour, violence or abuse. The abuse can encompass, but is not limited to:

- ☐ Emotional
- ☐ Physical
- ☐ Sexual
- ☐ Financial
- ☐ Verbal

It happens between adults who are, or have been, intimate partners or are family members, regardless of gender or sexuality. Who can be affected?

How can we help you? Through our Helpline:

We offer a confidential, free to use telephone helpline service. We can offer you emotional support and provide information and signpost you to other specialist services. All our staff are professionals who have experience of working with men who have suffered domestic abuse . housing. ☐ Helping you become tenancy ready

Anybody can be affected by domestic abuse, and anyone can be an abuser. If you are a man aged 16 or over that has experienced domestic abuse currently, or in the past, you don't have to suffer in silence. BEAP Community service MRO is here to help you.

How can we help you? Through our Helpline:

We offer a confidential, free to use telephone helpline service. We can offer you emotional support and provide information and signpost you to other specialist services. All our staff are professionals who have experience of working with men who have suffered domestic abuse .

Emotional Support

- ☐ Someone to talk to confidentially, who understands your issues.
- ☐ Can offer support to increase your confidence and help you make changes to your life.
- ☐ Help you to realise that you are not to blame for your situation. ☐ Offer you confidential face to face support sessions at our offices.

Information and guidance

- ☐ How you can access housing and help you to make applications
- ☐ How to report incidents to the police.
- ☐ Who to approach for legal help
- ☐ Local services and support groups
- ☐ Support to help you to stay safe
- ☐ Signposting to specialist services

How can we help you? Through our Floating Support

Floating Support We can offer you a floating support service to enable you to live safely in the community. Your key worker will support you for up to 12 months with issues such as:

- ☐ Helping you to claim correct benefits
- ☐ Helping you to register with a GP
- ☐ Helping you to settle into your new home ☐ Emotional and practical support
- ☐ Referrals to other specialist support Agencies e.g. substance misuse and mental health etc.
- ☐ Budgeting ☐ Holding regular re-housing meetings and submitting applications for permanent housing.
- ☐ Helping you become tenancy ready

